Santander Master’s Scholarship Guidance Notes

The Santander Master’s Scholarships (funded by Santander), aim to assist the most academically able students from leading universities to pursue a Master’s programme at the University of Huddersfield.

Up to three scholarships will be awarded each year to students from the following countries:

- Bangladesh
- Brazil
- Canada
- Ghana
- India
- Nigeria
- Pakistan
- Russia
- United States

Eligibility requirements

Candidates must:

- be residents of one of the Santander network countries listed above
- hold or expect to achieve a UK 2:1 honours degree (or above) or equivalent, awarded by a recognised or accredited higher education institution

Application process

Please contact the International Office with your expression of interest.

Selection criteria

Scholarships are awarded on the basis of academic excellence. Financial circumstances are not taken into account. The final selection is made by a panel of University Huddersfield staff, which may be joined by a representative from Santander.

Value, terms and conditions

- This Scholarship is awarded for one year only, and consists of a one-off award of £5,000.
- The Scholarships are to be awarded to full fee paying students of from the countries detailed above applying to study on full-time postgraduate taught programmes at the University of Huddersfield.
- The Scholarships will be awarded in the form of a partial waiver against tuition fees.
- Applicants who are in receipt of any donor funding (e.g. ORSAS, DFID, Chevening awards) or government company sponsorships will not be eligible for the Santander Scholarships.
- Successful students will not receive any other scholarship awards or financial assistance from the University.
- A scholarship cannot be deferred to a later year.
- Applicants must have already applied to the University of Huddersfield and received an offer of a place on a full time postgraduate taught degree course.
- Residency in a country will be determined during the application to the Huddersfield.
• Applicants must have a formal qualification in English Language (i.e. IELTS, TOEFL or other acceptable measure) which meets the University’s entry requirements¹.

• The submission of falsified or counterfeit documents will disqualify the applicant from consideration. Personal statements which are found to be plagiarised or copied will also result in disqualification.

• The decision of the awarding panel is final. We regret that we are unable to enter into correspondence relating to unsuccessful applications.

• By accepting a Scholarship, the applicant agrees to participate in publicity initiatives and gives consent to his her photograph appearing in marketing literature including web pages.

Privacy policy

Personal data will be collected and stored during the online application process. Student privacy is important to us and we will ensure all personal data and information provided is treated in accordance with all applicable UK Data Protection legislation. We will not sell personally identifiable data to anyone, nor will it be provided knowingly to other organisations or third parties not affiliated with the University of Huddersfield.

¹ This will normally be IELTS 6.0 or an acceptable equivalent test with no lower than 5.5 in any single band and no lower than 6.0 in Writing. Several programmes have higher requirements. If you are not sure whether your qualification meets our requirements please contact the International Office for clarification.